MAD RUTH JUDD RECAPTURED IN PHOENIX, ARIZ.

Described As 'Literally Wild Woman' When Caught On Grounds

DIRTY, HALF-STARVED

Shoes Gone And Legs Marked By Bruises And Scratches

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 31—(AP)—Winnie Ruth Judd, "literally a wild woman," who sobbed and screamed and threw things until given a sedative to quiet her, was back in the Arizona State Hospital for the Insane today, carefully guarded.

The mad trunk killer, dirty, unkempt and half-starved, who said she saw "horrible things" during her six days of freedom, was caught last night leaving an attache's home on the hospital grounds which she had entered to obtain food.

Her shoes were gone. There were holes in her stockings. Bruises and scratches on her legs indicated she had fallen or bumped into objects while wandering in the dark. One ankle was sprained and she had fashioned a brace from a girdle.

In a pillow slip she carried bread crusts, several cans of soup, spaghetti, a glass of jelly and a nearly green orange from which she had sucked the juice.

The new frock and shoes which she wore when she fled the hospital last Tuesday night had been exchanged for an old, brown coat and drab blue hat, pulled down over her ears.

Mrs. Judd, who in 1931 killed Agnes Ann Le Roi and Hedvig Samuelson and stuffed their bodies into trunks which were shipped to Los Angeles, apparently had been in the vicinity of Phoenix since her escape.

She told Dr. Louis J. Saxe, hospital superintendent, she had been hiding in a cornfield about one and one-half miles from the main building and in a cemetery on the hospital grounds.

Sheriff Lon Jordan said, however, he had traced her movements and that she apparently spent most of her time hiding in one side of a duplex, about eight blocks from the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. H. J. McKinnell, whom she visited a few minutes after her escape.

Jordan said Mrs. Judd spent the first night in an orange grove and Wednesday night through Saturday night at the duplex, where she carved her initials "WRJ" and the date "10 29 39" on a window sill. Sunday night she visited a minister in Tempe, nine miles east of Phoenix, and spent three hours at his house.

The minister attempted to return the insane blonde to the hospital but

3 CANDIDATES MAKE PROMISES

Noe Charges Administration With 'All-Time Low In Trickery'

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31—(AP)—Three candidates for governor in overnight speeches promised to obtain federal funds for wild life preservation, aid the sugar growing interests and give the people a "square deal."

James A. Noe in his speeches at Homer and Arcadia declared that his investigations, aided by 980 affidavits, formed the basis of the federal investigation into Louisiana affairs and said he spent his own money to turn the spotlight along with the press on "every shady deal."

Noe charged that the state administration had reached an "all-time low in political trickery" by offering free lunches to school children "that are in reality nothing but vote bait" and declared he was the man who would give the citizens and taxpayers "a square deal."

Sam Jones of Lake Charles, another anti-administration candidate, put forth a new plank last night in New Orleans with a promise to take the state fish and game commission "out of politics" and get Louisiana's share of federal funds to preserve wild life.

He declared the state machine's "efforts to cover up the scandals" had developed into a "comedy of errors" but that the "dealing of the cards from the bottom of the deck" would be broken up by the voters in the January 16 election.

"The mighty tidal wave will sweep out this silk-lined, well-oiled, high-plumed crowd," Jones said.

James H. Morrison, speaking at New Iberia, promised that if elected gov-

MERCURY FALLS TO 29.5 IN MONROE

From the mayor to the tramp on the corner, people in Monroe were shivering from cold Tuesday morning. And no wonder—with the temperature dipping down to 29.5 at 6:30 a.m. and crawling up slowly.

The previous low here this fall was recorded Sunday, when the temperature dropped to 32 degrees, the first freeze of the season.

Workers In Campaign Apparently Reinvigorated By Cool Weather

Although no official tabulation had been made Tuesday noon, it was announced at headquarters in Hotel Virginia that fully $12,000 had been turned in to date in the second annual financial campaign of the Twin City Community Chest. Reports were being made throughout the morning by workers.

Listed as having donated the sums set for them by the rating committees of the chest were employes of the sheriff's department 100 per cent, employes of Dan Cohen company 100 per cent, employes of Monroe Wholesale Drug company 100 per cent, Bella [illegible] Davison, M Henry, Lamkin and Titche, A B Guthrie, Carl H M Henry, O A [illegible], Dr R L Wood, Louisiana Power and Light company, O A Evans, Simonton Grain company, Sherwin-Williams, Sears, Roebuck and company, T John department store, Central Auto Sales Inc., Lemon Motor company, employes of Peacock's 100 per cent, employes of Southern Carbon company 100 per cent, employes of Interurban Transfer company 100 per cent, employes of F Strauss and Son 100 per cent, employes of Mulhearn Funeral home 100 per cent and Monroe Steam Laundry.

The approximate total reached at noon Tuesday showed the indicators in the chest thermometers up another notch. The total Monday night stood at $11,000.

The cool weather during the past two days seems to have reinvigorated the workers in the campaign, who are striving to reach a goal of $29,500. The campaign, which started October 23, is scheduled to end Saturday.

The funds raised during the campaign will be budgeted to 11 welfare and character-building agencies operating in Monroe and West Monroe.

WATCH OUT, FOR HALLOWEEN NOW WITH US AGAIN

Young America Destined To Have Good Time; Police Give Warning

All kinds of bizarre and mystifying events are scheduled to transpire tonight. It may be that strange and blood curdling sounds will be heard outside your window. Do not get alarmed. Faces of strange, uncanny hideous look and bodies misshapen and oddly and sometimes gorgeously dressed may appear before you unannounced. Again no cause to get excited.

The front door bell may ring a half dozen times every ten minutes and when you go there, no one will be in sight. If there is a gate to the front fence around the house, keep it securely fastened if you do not want to retrieve it several blocks away tomorrow.

Any outbuilding or child's playhouse had best be firmly clamped to the ground for there is liable to be a temptation to carry them out in the center of the street somewhere.

Look after the cow in the yard. Cows have been known to have been conveyed right into people's houses, sometimes getting as high as a belfry tower.

All told it is likely to be a night of fun for Halloween, like Christmas, comes but once a year and children are children but once in a lifetime. The police of Monroe are determined to have a safe and sane Halloween, yet any harmless fun will not be interfered with.

In churches, especially Catholic and Episcopal, All Saints day, November 1 is a solemn occasion. There will be services locally at both St. Matthew's Catholic and Grace Episcopal churches.

German Hunters Will Try To Keep Starvation Away

By DeWitt MacKenzie

(Associated Press Foreign Affairs Writer)

Mobilization of Germany's huntsmen to increase the food supply of the country gives an almost whimsical view of the potential disaster in the English blockade.

It isn't meant to be fanciful, of course, and it's a smart move in view of the abundance of deer and small game in West Prussia and the newly annexed Polish territory.

It's not hard to guess the author of this novel scheme. Surely it can be none other than Herr Hitler's second in command—Field Marshal Hermann Goering, official chief huntsman by virtue of being Nazidom's most famous sportsman.

Goering is an eager hunter and fisherman. I had a bird's eye view a year ago of his magnificent preserve at Berchtesgaden, in the Bavarian Alps, where he has a lordly home near the mountain retreat of the fuehrer. Undoubtedly Goering will take a hand in keeping the wolf from Germany's door with his sports gun.

But Goering, as economic dictator of the Reich, would be the last to treat lightly the sea-trap that caught Germany two decades ago. He must recognize it as the most potent weapon that the allies can turn against the fatherland.

There is a grim fascination in watching the test of brute strength between England and Germany as the Britons try to tighten their blockade into a complete strangle-hold about the fiercely resisting Reich.

It isn't spectacular, this conflict which is being waged beneath the cloak of the fall fogs that blanket the English channel and the North sea. But it is the most vital war operation going forward at this moment, for upon success or failure of the blockade may depend the outcome of the European upheaval.

Both sides are claiming the advantage thus far and Nazi officialdom declares that the blockade can't break Germany this time as it did in the

Starnes Charges 'Patent Effort To Discredit Witness'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Immediately after he stepped down from the witness stand of the Dies committee, husky William McCuistion, sailor and one-time minor Communist official, was taken into custody today by police in connection with a New Orleans slaying.

Washington authorities had been requested by New Orleans police yesterday to hold McCuistion for questioning in connection with the killing September 17 of Philip Carey, an official of the national maritime union at New Orleans. McCuistion formerly served as an officer of the N. M. U. at New Orleans.

The request that the brawny, big-voiced witness be held reached here yesterday after he had left the capitol but today the Dies committee investigating un-American activities turned him over to Lieutenant Horace Lineburg, head of the un-American squad of the Washington detective bureau.

Just prior to this action the committee adopted a resolution asking that McCuistion be taken to the civil liberties section of the department of justice for an investigation to determine whether his civil liberties had been violated.

Some committee members charged there had been an effort to intimidate McCuistion in connection with his testimony to the committee.

Chairman Dies, Democrat, Texas, said that although there was a discrepancy in the spelling of the name of the witness and that of the man sought by New Orleans police "this man is ready to face any charges."

(Reports from New Orleans said the name appeared with three or four different spellings in police and union records there but that police had identified the Dies witness as the man they sought and that "McCuistion" was the correct spelling.)

Lieutenant Lineburg said as he left the hearing room that he would take McCuistion to headquarters immediately and probably would go to the justice department within an hour.

"I will take this man to headquarters until I find out who we are to see at the justice department," Lineburg said. "He will be in our custody as a fugitive from justice at the request of the New Orleans police."

Lineburg declared the witness would be "around town for at least two days" and he would return him to the Dies committee for further questioning upon the request of the committee.

The lieutenant said that there was a question of extradition to Louisiana. Asked whether he would waive extradition, McCuistion said with a wave of his arms:

"I don't know. I don't know what this is all about."

Dies asserted that there had been an attempt to intimidate the witness and indicated his belief that the arrangements for McCuistion's arrest had been made with the idea of discrediting his whole testimony.

McCuistion, who had testified about alleged Communist domination of the national maritime union, told the committee that his opposition to the Communist party had caused him to

ROOSEVELT CALLS THANKSGIVING DAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Proclaiming Thursday, November 23, as a day of general thanksgiving, President Roosevelt asked today that thanks be offered "for the hope that lives within us" of the coming of an eventual world peace.

The proclamation designated the next to last Thursday instead of the last Thursday in the month as Thanksgiving day in accordance with Mr. Roosevelt's decision to move up the holiday for business reasons. Some states, however, have decided to celebrate November 30.

Mr. Roosevelt said in the proclamation that it was fitting to continue a "hallowed custom" begun by President Washington when he asked the nation to lay down all tasks for one day in the year and give thanks for the blessings granted by Divine providence.

"Our nation has gone steadily forward in the application of democratic processes of economic and social problems," the president said.

"We have faced the specters of business depression, of unemployment and of widespread agricultural distress, and our positive efforts to alleviate these conditions have met with heartening results."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The United States asked both Britain and Germany today to avoid any action which would imperil unnecessarily the captive American crew aboard the freighter City of Flint, now somewhere in the blockaded North sea bound for Germany.

While the American request did not ask precautions against any specific action it was learned that two eventualities were most feared by officials:

First, that the German prize crew might blow up the vessel if British warships attempted to capture her.

Second, that the British might sink the ship.

BERLIN, Oct. 31—(AP)—The German prize crew in command of the United States-owned freighter City of Flint was given an even chance in shipping circles today to escape detection on a blockade-dodging voyage along the ragged coast of Norway, en route to a German haven.

Thousands of islands and numerous fiords offered places for experienced navigators to hide temporarily from British warships, especially if the City of Flint traveled mostly by night. Moreover, fog and low visibility were on the side of her captors.

Germans as well as neutral observers manifested lively interest in word that the freighter had stopped for three hours yesterday at Tromsoe, Norway, on her odyssey through northern waters since seizure October 9 by the German pocket battleship Deutschland.

It was a return visit to Tromsoe. Ten days ago, she called there to land 38 seamen from two sunken British mer-

Pletch admitted, Moody said, that he had lied when he told Indiana authorities, after his arrest Saturday night, that Bivens had planned to steal the borrowed plane with him and fly to Mexico. He said in that statement that he shot Bivens during a mid-air quarrel when Bivens "backed out."

The fire, of undetermined origin, broke out in the room where the twins were sleeping, while their parents and grandfather were out milking.

Before their grandmother and two other small children of the Garrett's realized there was a fire, the entire house was falling in, making the rescue of the twins impossible. The other two children are Manette, 7, and Charles, 5.

STEEL DEMAND GIVES JOBS TO 75,000 WORKERS

$12,000,000 Added To Monthly Payroll In Last Quarter-Year

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The spectacular increase in steel production has added approximately 75,000 workers and $12,000,000 or more monthly to the industry's payroll within the past three months, leading operators agreed today.

The pickup, one of the most rapid in history, brought both the output and employment near the decade's peak which was reached in 1937 and is stirring up heated debate over the effects of technological improvements.

The last "official" figures by the American Iron and Steel institute showed steel mills hired 44,000 workers during September, bringing the average employment for that month to 502,000 from 451,000 working in July. Payrolls were reported at $69,735,000, up $10,000,000 from the July figures.

Production increased during September almost 20 points to better than 80 per cent of capacity. Steel experts estimated that with the addition of ten more points in the rate of output during October, employment now is around 530,000 or 79,000 above the low mark.

All of which has increased the complaint of labor leaders that introduction of labor-saving machinery, including the expensive high speed sheet and strip mills, has prevented the employment of 75,000 to 100,000 men.

An official of the C. I. O. steel workers organizing committee, which has contracts now with more than 570 steel concerns, charged recently that the new $60,000,000 Irvin works built by the United States Steel corporation

BRITAIN READY FOR BIG CLASH ON NORTH SEA

Feeling Persists This Will Be One Of War's Battlegrounds

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Heavy naval and war plane concentrations along Great Britain's east coast, military observers said today, indicated the British are prepared for a gigantic North sea battle.

"It's such a ruddy queer war," one tactical expert declared, "that predictions aren't much good, but you can be sure of one thing, and that is that Great Britain wouldn't be caught out if Adolf Hitler sent along his planes and submarines in a bunch for one terrific North sea battle."

Much of the British feeling that the North sea will be one of the big battlegrounds of the war comes from such German pronouncements as that which appeared in Hitler's newspaper, Voelkischer Beobachter, over the week-end.

The paper asserted if "England persists in throwing overboard one after the other all conceptions of international rules, then it must reckon with inevitable intensification of war against its commerce."

British tactical authorities regard the periodic raids and reconnaissance flights thus far over the Scapa Flow and Firth of Forth naval areas and the attack on one British convoy as "experimental" actions to feel out resistance and test the ground for bigger things.

British tacticians expect the "serious" bombing raids to be conducted in waves of probably six planes each.

Aerial experts hinted Britain is prepared for such attacks as follows:

First, the raiders would be met over

Throng Anticipated For Little Chicago's Frolic

All roads will lead to Monroe and West Monroe for Little Chicago's fifth annual carnival of impractical politics November 7 and 8, according to reports Tuesday from Jack Allen, chairman of the executive committee in charge of the celebration.

People from all over northeast Louisiana and elsewhere are making plans to visit the Twin Cities to watch the boys tote torches the night of November 7 and stuff the ballot boxes on the big election day, November 8.

Several of the gubernatorial candidates are said to have made arrangements to be here on one of the two days to pick up a few pointers on how to line up the votes and manipulate the returns.

This year, there will be something distinctly new. There will be a queen to preside over the inaugural ball following the counting of votes the night of November 8. She will invest the winning candidates with the powers, pomp and privileges of their mythical offices.

Another feature will be a song-title contest sponsored by local merchants. The participating merchants will decorate their display windows to represent song titles. Persons guessing the titles will be awarded prizes by the merchants.

As usual, awards will be made to persons attending the feverish counting of votes following the amusing election. And a carnival will be in progress at the Missouri Pacific Boosters' club lot on Ouachita avenue throughout the week of the election.

The queen will be chosen in a contest conducted by Paramount theater. Candidates are being entered and sponsored by local merchants.

Meanwhile, everyone in Monroe and West Monroe was aware the Little Chicago election was rapidly approaching. Gus Kokinos, the warm-hearted manufacturer of frozen confections who is running for mayor as Plutocrat, was going about puffing enormous campaign cigars. And the Aristocrats have set up campaign

Europe Looks To Moscow For Clarification Of Soviet Aims

MOSCOW, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Soviet Russia's premier and foreign commissar, Vyacheslaff Molotoff, today declared "there can be no question of restoring Poland" and that it was "absurd to continue the present war" for such a cause.

(By Associated Press)

A shakeup of high military and Fascist leaders by Premier Mussolini and the sudden departure of the German ambassador today stirred the Italian end of the Rome-Berlin axis to its first activity since the European war started.

The German embassy attributed to "an extraordinary reason" the departure of Ambassador von Mackensen, who went home Sunday, but shed no further light on his trip.

Mussolini, who has refrained from any initiative since his axis partner's invasion of Poland involved Germany in war with France and Britain, changed seven cabinet ministers and the army and Fascist militia chiefs-of-staff.

Foreign diplomats in Rome attributed the sweeping changes to conditions within the Fascist party, but some observers saw evidence of lessening German influence in Rome, an interpretation that French diplomatic circles put on the shakeup.

The turnover gave new posts to two high Fascists credited with pro-German sympathies. Achille Starace exchanged the Fascist party secretaryship for the post of chief of the militia's general staff and Dino Alfieri, former propaganda minister, was appointed ambassador awaiting assignment.

Marshal Rodolfo Graziani became the Italian army's chief of staff, replacing General Alberto Pariani, who last spring conferred with the German chief of staff, General Wilhelm Keitel, on joint German-Italian military plans.

Whether the changes foreshadowed a shift in Italy's policies of neutrality or of cooperation with Germany remained unclear.

Recent reports from southeast Europe have indicated Rome was bending her efforts toward forging a bloc of neutral states that would make Italian influence paramount over Russian and German in the Balkans.

Europe looked meanwhile toward Moscow for a clarification of Russian aims at an extraordinary session of the supreme Soviet which starts today. Judging by Soviet press comment most observers believed Britain and France would be urged to make peace with Germany.

A Finnish delegation prepared to return to Moscow with Finland's reply to undisclosed Soviet proposals.

The Finnish diet hurried passage of bills to give the government a free hand in wartime, thus appearing to bear out predictions that Finland was granting few if any concessions to her powerful neighbor who has established protectorates over three other adjoining states—Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

A burst of artillery fire shattered the calm of the western front.

French military sources said that a

FARM INCOME FOR 1939 HIGH

Expected To Exceed Any Year Of Last Ten Except 1937

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—(AP)—October, traditionally the banner cash income month for American farmers, closed today with agriculture's prospective 1939 dollar receipts the best of any year in almost a decade except for 1937.

Market analysts estimated that even though this year's income of more than $8,000,000,000 may fall below that of two years ago, it is giving farmers buying power equal to that of 1937 inasmuch as prices of commodities they purchase are lower.

The farm price advance which has occurred since the start of the European war was partly responsible for lifting the level of agricultural income over that of last year. Although some of the war boom enhancement of commodity values faded away, producers have large supplies of practically all types of grain, livestock and dairy products to market at higher price levels.

Since August 31, the [illegible] before war broke out, prices of principal farm commodities such as grains, livestock, eggs, butter [illegible] 10 to 29 per cent [illegible] cases except for [illegible] are higher than a [illegible]

All Souls day, which immediately follows All Saints, leads us to ask the question: Why should we pray for the dead? And I answer in the words of one of the church's outstanding theologians: 'There can be no doubt that the custom of including the departed in the prayers of the church is of the most primitive antiquity, and that our particular way of offering such prayers in connection with the Eucharist sacrifice, is mentioned as among church usages by Tertullian about 200 A. D. There is every reason to believe that this was among the practices of the synagogue worship and that it passed over naturally into the church of Apostolic times. It is when we are met together at the Eucharist that we seem nearest to those who are taking part in the same great act of worship in the more immediate presence of the Lamb."

Father Kronenberger, head of the Holy Ghost fathers of Alexandria. When in Monroe to attend the Knights of Columbus initiation on Sunday, the bishop held a conference with Father Vandegaer, Father Murray, Father Kronenberger, T. H. McMahon and Ross J. Zuberbier. Father Vandegaer stated that he had named Father Murray to look after the interests of the colored Catholics here. A church for these people is being erected at Adams and 18th streets under the supervision of Father Murray. Plans were considered for the construction of a Catholic school for colored here which is said to be needed and which was approved by the bishop.

REVIVAL NEED IS GIVEN EMPHASIS

The revival services, which began at the First Baptist church, West Monroe, Sunday, are moving along in constructive manner.

W. E. Young, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church, Shreveport, together with Mrs. Young, arrived on the field Monday, and was in charge of the music Monday evening when the pastor, Dr. A. E. Prince, preached on "The Need of a Revival."

Dr. Prince said we need a revival because of the fact of the soul, because of the fact of the judgment, because of the fact of eternity, laying particular stress on the fact that people had gotten away from God. "When God's people make Jesus the Lord of their lives and magnify Him by going to their secret closets in prayer, then will a revival fire begin to burn in the hearts of the people," the minister said.

"We need to get our people together and kindle the fires of evangelism until we bring people into the right relationship with God. We need a revival to bring people back into service, one that will set our hearts on fire and permeate every work of the church, and weld our hearts together in one great brotherhood to attack the forces of sin in our community; to draw people to the sanctuary of God. Are we willing to pray for a revival like that? Are we willing to pay the price for a meeting like that? Are we willing to give our service for the king?" were the concluding remarks of the minister.

Great crowds are in attendance at both the morning and evening services.

The public is invited to all the services.

PAUL MUNI ACTS ON STAGE AGAIN

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Paul Muni returned to the stage here last night after a seven-year sojourn in Hollywood and was given an ovation by a first night audience for his performance in Maxwell Anderson's "Key Largo."

Muni has the role of an American participant in the Spanish civil war who returns home thoroughly disillusioned, his soul tormented by the fact he survived after deserting four comrades and ultimately served with the enemy to save his life.

The actor's portrayal of King McCloud equalled his several noteworthy screen impersonations. The part fit him—or perhaps he fit it—as if it had been made for him.

Sharing credit with Muni for the play's enthusiastic reception, were Anderson's rhythmic lines, Guthrie McClintic's direction, and Jo Mielziner's sets.

DALE CARNEGIE WILL TALK HERE

Famous Speaker And Writer Will Discuss 'How To Win Friends'

Dale Carnegie, outstanding psychologist, writer and lecturer, will arrive in Monroe Tuesday at 6:45 p.m. over the Missouri Pacific railroad, coming here to fill a lecture engagement at Neville High school auditorium, Wednesday at 8 p.m. The distinguished visitor will be met by a special reception committee composed of Mayor H. H. Benoit of Monroe, Mayor H. W. Williams, Jr. of West Monroe, and officers and board members of the Monroe Sales Executives club, sponsor of the lecture. Joe Ramey is president of the club, Bob Burns, vice-president and directors are Bill Mintz, C. J. Moseley and J. C. Liner, Jr.

Mr. Carnegie will use for the theme of his lecture the title of his famous book "How To Win Friends and Influence People."

Concerning Mr. Carnegie it is stated that he is unique on the lecture platform. Born on an obscure Missouri farm ten miles from a railroad, he grew up amid stern frontier handicaps. While attending college, he commuted each day on horseback so that at home he could milk the cows, cut the wood and feed the hogs. At night he studied Latin verbs by the light of a coal oil lamp. This same man today has a long record for achievement.

During the past 26 years, Mr. Carnegie has trained more than 30,000 men and women in the art of effective speaking and personality development. The Dale Carnegie institute in New York with branches in cities throughout the United States, is the only organization in the world conducting a combined course in public speaking, personality improvement and human relations for businessmen and women. There are 22 colleges and universities in New York City conducting extension courses; yet more adults come to Dale Carnegie than to all these extension courses combined.

His famous book, "How to Win Friends and Influence People," has sold more than a million copies in its first 18 months of publication, setting an all-time record for non-fiction books. Letters have poured in by thousands as testimony of the phenominal influence of this work has had on the American public.

Through his lectures on both radio and platform, as well as in his daily newspaper column, Mr. Carnegie is bringing inspiration to millions. He brings to his lectures the intimate knowledge of human relations that comes only from one who has dealt successfully with people in all fields of activity and on every continent of the globe. He has travelled the world over and found mankind the same—whether in Hong Kong or London, everyone longs to win more friends, to exert more influence and to have more happiness. He understands the problems of salesmen, the clerk, the business executive, the housewife, the student—everyone who deals with people.

LECTURER

DALE CARNEGIE

He has thrilled hundreds of audiences all over the country with his lecture. In many cities he attracted the largest crowd in the history of the city, with some audiences reaching nearly 10,000 people. So important do many organizations consider Mr. Carnegie's lectures that they have chartered buses in order that their employes may benefit from his advice. People have driven 300 and 400 miles just to hear this unusual man. It has been reliably said that no speaker living today has a wider appeal. For those who have read his book as well as those who have not, he has an ever-challenging message.

From indications thus far noted, it is probable that there will be a capacity house here Wednesday night and many are expected to come to Monroe for the occasion from all parts of north Louisiana. Already many business executives have ordered tickets for their entire staff of office and sales forces.

INFORMATION GIVEN AS TO DONATIONS

In connection with the approaching campaign of the Red Cross roll call, Dr. C. Karlos Smith, director for West Monroe, asks that all who contribute who reside in West Monroe and who work in Monroe, make their donations in West Monroe. Credit for the contribution, however, will be given to Monroe, the place of their employment.

This is done in order to give a fair showing to West Monroe in the campaign which otherwise might be robbed of the credit that is rightfully here, Dr. Smith said.

British Engineer And Wife To Become American Citizens

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—(AP)—William Georgi, wealthy British engineer, said today he and his wife had decided to become American citizens so their three children could "get a decent start in life."

"They couldn't get a decent start anywhere in Europe now," Georgi explained. "Things are hopeless there and will be for the next thirty or forty years. It's war now, and if the war goes on for a year or two, there'll be revolutions when it's over."

The 60-year-old engineer arrived with his family yesterday on the American freighter Black Gull.

The older daughter, Dorothea, 17, said she wanted to study medicine at Johns Hopkins university; Mary, 13, was eager to go into the hotel business; Henry, 8, merely wanted to see the World's fair.

Georgi said that with Germany receiving supplies from Russia he saw little chance of the Nazi government being subdued by England and France.

"Both sides will fight to the last farthing—not to the last man," he continued, "because generals won't lose a million men in one shot trying to attack fortified positions like the Maginot and Limes lines."

"The able-bodied male population of Europe is under arms, both the men and their families being supported by the governments. The governments won't be able to stand the strain and are going to find themselves with situations they can't solve. Then, I think, there will be revolutions."

Georgi served with the royal engineering corps in the World war and as a British member of the Rhineland high commission from 1919 to 1929.

Sounds like an adolescent war skirmish at the old Sur-Way Grocery building at the corner of Catalpa and Harrison streets. The noise is not made by guns, however, but by the hammers of local Boy Scouts who are building their troop booths in preparation for the merit badge show Saturday.

To begin at 1 p.m. and close at 10 p.m. the show will feature exhibits on practically every phase of scouting, according to Olan H. Black, scout executive. Sponsored by the Ouachita Valley council, the show is being prepared to give the general public an insight into scouting activities.

Robert Dubos, scout executive of El Dorado, Ark., Bill Halliburton, scout commissioner, and an El Dorado scoutmaster will judge the various merit badge exhibits. Prizes will be awarded the three outstanding exhibits, $10 for first, $5 for second and $2.50 for third place.

TWO STATE SOLONS WILL GO ON TRIAL

AMITE, La., Oct. 31.—(AP)—State Senator Dorris Lindsey Holland of Greensburg and State Representative Leonard Spinks of Hammond are scheduled to go on trial here Friday on charges of dual office-holding, the first such cases to go on trial in the state.

Indictments returned against them alleged they held jobs on the state moratorium commission in addition to serving in the legislature.

In a similar case in Morehouse parish the district court upheld jurisdiction pleas of State Senator Leo Terzia and State Representative Will Harvey Todd. An appeal was taken to the supreme court.

In the Holland and Spinks cases Judge Hypolite Mixon held his court held jurisdiction and that they would have to go to trial.

BRITAIN DENIES GUNS ON ATHENIA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Britain has denied to the United States that the liner Athenia carried guns or was designed to be a raider.

Lord Lothian, the British ambassador, delivered a note to the state department last night reiterating his government's contention that the ship was sunk September 3 by a submarine. The Athenia was en route to Canada and carried many Americans and Canadians who headed homeward at the outbreak of the war.

The note also said that the ship carried no bullion or securities.

Paul Goebbels, German propaganda minister, had charged that the Athenia carried guns and was to be equipped as a raider. He also suggested that the British sank her in order to involve the United States in the war. This was denied by Lord Lothian.

Although the note made no direct reference to Goebbels' charges, it did reply to those of Gustav Anderson of Evanston, Ill., a passenger on the Athenia. Anderson had made an affidavit saying that B. M. Copland, the ship's chief officer, told him there were guns in the hold and that the Athenia was to be outfitted as a raider.

The British note said Copland had sworn that he never discussed with Anderson whether there were guns on board. It said Copland also declared that there were no guns nor munitions on the Athenia.

Children won't take to art, to crafts, to trades, to specialized experiences unless they are stimulated to experience with these activities. You never know until you try whether you can play the violin or not and the time to find out is just after your twelfth birthday.

"But I offered him a violin when he was three years old. And kept at it until he was five and he would have none of it." Very likely. You see he may not have grown the ears for a violin at three or at five but he might have grown them by the time he was twelve or thirteen, or fourteen. You won't know until you try. Tastes and powers develop differently in different children. The genius starts his work early, sometimes, but he is quite certain to show it in his pre-adolescent years. Try him out. If one thing fails another will succeed.

Don't wish without acting to bring your wish to fulfillment. If you want a child to enjoy his church take him there with you. Don't send him as a duty, but take him along as an experience you'd hate to have him miss. If you wish he would love art take him to the galleries, don't send him for a lesson. If you'd have him become a scientist fill his experiences with delightful scientific discoveries, and enjoy them with him.

The best time for the discovery and development of talent is in pre-adolescence, and the right place is the junior high school, backed up of course with home influences and home experiences.

Mr. Patri's booklet, "Annoying Habits," will help you to help your child overcome his troublesome little ways. Send for it, enclosing ten cents in coin. Address Mr. Angelo Patri, care the Monroe News-Star, Postoffice Box 75, Station O, New York, N. Y.

Jimmie Fidler In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 31 — When I was a kid back in Tennessee, an aged negro who did odd jobs for the family used to tell ghost stories every Halloween — stories that left me aquiver for weeks. In fact, until Christmas gave me something else to think about, I whistled [illegible] when walking home alone at night, and [illegible] a fleshless skeleton tapping me on the shoulder and saying "You're my meat."

All Eyes On Critics

The Critics' Circle is back on the Death Watch. Upon them the producers, actors and audience turn anxious eyes, appraise their smiles, frowns, [illegible] of legs, downward glances, loud laughter, animation, [illegible] in terms of failure or success.

If a showman observes a critic who looks as though he would be happier in the arms of Morpheus he sees thousands of dollars flying out the window. For upon the critical mood hangs the public response to a Broadway play. All-powerful or nearly so, they tell John Q. Public what to pay to see, what to avoid and save their money.

'Polite' Society

First Nights bring out the worst in people, and this season is no exception. The rudeness of first nighters already has been expressed at the inaugural gala opening. In the first place, the curtain rose 15 minutes after its scheduled time. Then the latecomers streamed in with nonchalance, and blandly trespassed on the toes of folk who had been polite enough to be prompt.

Season For Duck Hunting In State Opens On Nov. 15

With duck hunters looking toward the opening day of waterfowl hunting season on November 15, Malcolm E. Lafargue, first assistant United States attorney for the western district of Louisiana, has issued a statement outlining the federal regulations governing the hunting of waterfowl and other migratory birds.

Game birds listed by the government are ducks, geese, jacksnipe, coot, doves, woodcock, rails and gallinules.

Ducks, with certain restrictions, and geese, jacksnipe and coot may be hunted from November 15 through December 29.

The dove season, already opened [illegible] weeks, continues through December 31.

The season on rails and gallinules [illegible] Wednesday and runs through January [illegible]

[illegible] flying bird and [illegible] sportsman may [illegible] day during the month of [illegible]

The legal shooting hours as fixed by the government are from 7 a.m. until 4 p.m. for hunting ducks, geese [illegible] jacksnipe; doves, woodcock, rails and gallinules may be hunted from 7 a.m. until sunset.

Bag and possession limits are:

Ducks, ten per day, 20 in possession, except that three per day, six in possession is the limit on canvas backs, [illegible] buffleheads and ruddy [illegible] in the aggregate. There is no open season on wood[illegible]

Geese, four per day, eight in possession.

Jacksnipe, 15 per day, 15 in possession.

Doves, 15 per day, 15 in possession.

Woodcock, four per day, eight in possession.

Rails and gallinules, 15 per day, 15 in possession in aggregate.

Coot, 25 per day, 25 in possession.

Other government requirements for the hunter, as outlined by Attorney Lafargue, specify that migratory game birds shall be hunted with a shotgun only, the gun being not larger than 10 gauge and having a capacity of not more than three shells. It is illegal to use a rifle, but bow and arrow may be used legally. It is unlawful to take migratory game attracted by bait, nor is it legal to use live duck or goose decoys.

Not more than a two-day bag limit of ducks and geese may be transported in one calendar week out of the state in which they were killed.

A duck stamp, to be purchased at the postoffice, is required of all persons over 16 years of age who hunt migratory birds.

Due to the fact that state hunting licenses issued by the state department of conservation contain only those regulations pertaining to state laws, Attorney Lafargue said he wished to caution hunters of migratory birds to consult the federal laws relative to the hours of hunting, bag limits and other restrictions.

Federal laws protect all birds not listed as game birds or outlaw birds. So-called outlaw birds are listed by the state only.

A list of non-game birds, chiefly insectivorous, protected by the government was announced by Attorney Lafargue as follows:

Cuckoos, flickers and other woodpeckers, nighthawks or bullbats, chuckwill's-widow, poorwills and whippoorwills, swifts, hummingbirds, kingbirds, phoebes, and other flycatchers; horned larks, bobolinks, cowbirds, blackbirds, grackles, meadowlarks and orioles, grosbeaks, finches, sparrows and buntings; tangers; martins and other swallows, waxwings, phainopeplas, shrikes, vireos, warblers, pipits, catbirds, mockingbirds and thrashers; wrens, brown creepers, nuthatches, chickadees, titmice, kinglets and gnatcatchers; robins and other thrushes; all other perching birds which feed entirely or chiefly on insects; and auks, auklets, bitterns, fulmars, gannets, grebes, guillemots, gulls, herons, jaegers, loons, murres, petrels, puffins, shearwaters and terns.

There is no open season in Louisiana on the following game birds: Swan, woodduck, prairie chicken, wild turkey, whooping and sandhill cranes, curlews, upland plover or papabotte, kildeer, red-breasted snipe, "Chorook" and other sandpipers, plovers, yellowlegs and all shore birds except snipe and woodcock.

"It is our earnest desire to cooperate as much as possible with the citizens of this state in helping hunters to observe the federal game regulations," Attorney Lafargue stated. "All hunters who are interested in game preservation and conservation can secure information to that effect either through the United States attorney's office or the local state agency that issues state hunting licenses. However, those caught violating the federal statutes will be vigorously prosecuted in the federal court. Any and all such violations reported to this office will be certified to the proper department for investigation and prosecution."

WON'T GAMBLE WITH JUDGE

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 31.—(AP)—A motorist charged with driving 75 miles an hour told the judge his old boat couldn't go faster than 60. "I'll gamble with you," said City Judge Paul C. West. "I'll tax you with the costs now or we'll test your car and if it goes more than 60 miles an hour I'll fine you $50." The defendant declined the gamble and paid the costs.

MACAULEYS GIVEN PLENTY OF HELP

BALTIMORE, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The John Macauley family recovered today from monoxide poisoning and a whale of a lot of excited attention from up and down the Atlantic seaboard.

The family was overcome by fumes from a charcoal heater aboard a yacht tied up in Curtis creek last night, and Macauley, of Lake Worth, Fla., used his new radio transmitter to ask for first-aid information. He put out one call and got, within 10 minutes:

Two ambulances, three police radio cars, a United States quarantine physician, and a police boat which came up the creek full speed.

The Baltimore police were swamped with calls from radio amateurs, who had picked up the message.

From out at sea the coast guard cutter Chelan picked up the call, and radioed medical advice. The coast guard at Cape May, Va., called. Another call came in from far-away Massachusetts.

Meanwhile the quarantine physician gave the family emergency treatment and said they were out of danger. The family, Mrs. Macauley, 25, Donald, 8, and Ardis, 4, was taking the boat from the Great Lakes to Florida, and had stopped here to change engines.

ENDURANCE FLIERS STILL PARTLY DEAF

LONG BEACH, Calif., Oct. 31.—(AP)—It's tough not to be able to hear nice things people say about you.

But that's the predicament two record-shattering aviators found last night when they went to a Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The pair, Clyde Schlieper and Wes Carroll, confessed they were still partly deaf from the roar of the motors in their endurance flight of 30 days, six hours which ended Sunday. As a result, they missed some of the speakers' encomiums.

They admitted too they were still tired and shaky on their legs but expected to be able within a few days "to realize some profit from the venture."

PARAMOUNT TO GIVE HALLOWEEN SHOW

The Paramount theater will stage a big Halloween midnight show tonight. There will be fun, favors and foolishness for all. And on the screen Alice Faye and Don Ameche star in a romance of the movie capital from bathing beauties to world premieres, filmed in technicolor.

A great human drama of today that will stir happiest memories of 1,001 thrilling yesterdays is "Hollywood Cavalcade," which will be previewed at the midnight show party. The romance of Hollywood from bathing beauties to world premieres staged anew, this magnificent picture tells in highly entertaining fashion the story of Mike, a "prop" boy consumed with the desire to make pictures, and Molly, who wanted only to be loved by Mike, but who was swept along to greatness on the screen.

Those memorable Mack Sennett bathing beauties stroll again beside Castle rock on Santa Monica beach, but this time lovely Alice Faye is one of their number. Buster Keaton, Ben Turpin, Chester Conklin and those inimitable Keystone cops cavort again in slapstick, custard-pie comedy. Al Jolson sings again "Kol Nidre," the song with which he electrified the world in "The Jazz Singer," the first talking picture ever made. And Ameche, as Director Mike, recalls the great directors of a bygone day as he strides about his gigantic sets, in riding togs and puttees, carrying a huge megaphone with his name painted on it, directing a lavish Babylonian feast with hundreds of dress extras.

Alice Faye is more beautiful and effective than ever in her technicolor debut and also her first straight dramatic role as Molly, and Don Ameche is splendid as Mike, who forgot to tell her he loved her—until it was too late.

Others who shine in the supporting cast are J. Edward Bromberg, as a composite of all Hollywood producers; Alan Curtis, as the leading man Molly marries when she despairs of winning Mike; Stuart Erwin, as Mike's demon cameraman; Jed Prouty, as chief of police of the Keystone cops; Buster Keaton, as his pie-slinging self; George Givot, as the ever-present top-hatted villain, and Eddie Collins, as one of the more excitable members of the highly excitable police force.

AMISH MARRYING SEASON STARTS

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 31.—[illegible] the Amish marrying season got in swing today, it became clear why the name Stoltzfus is so common among members of the black-garbed [illegible] rural folk.

One of seven marriage licenses issued yesterday to Amish couples was for Amos S. Stoltzfus and Sadie Stoltzfus. They come from different [illegible] and are not related, although Stoltzfus also was their mother's maiden names.

In an Amish school near here all but one of the pupils is a Stoltzfus. So is the teacher.

The Amish wedding season comes at the end of the harvest when farm chores no longer keep the men and women in the fields.

With 67 of 128 experts casting their rst-place votes for Tennessee, the outheastern conference powerhouse day retained the No. 1 spot in the ird Associated Press ranking poll. ut the margin was by no means as ecisive as it was a week ago, just ter Tennessee had handed Alabama thorough drubbing.

Chiefly through their first-place tes, the Vols accumulated 1,120 ints. ## THE CIVIL WAR IS OVER—OR IS IT?

A fist fight enlivened the hard-fought University of Georgia-New York university football game at New York. After the scrap the southerners scored 13 points but New York university managed to win, 14-13. The fight involved Knox Eldridge of Georgia, Joe Frank and Sid Altman of New York university after a pass intended for Eldridge was batted down. Here Eldridge is led away from the group at the right by an New York university player. In the group are Frank and Jim Tighe, New York university back shown with cocked fist. At the left is Vassa Cate, Georgia backfield ace. A moment after this picture was made players and police swarmed over the field.

2 Main Bouts, Popularity Poll On Mat Card Tonight

Parelli Meets Indian, Sampson Wrestles Hill In Double Feature

Monroe wrestling fans will see two main event bouts, see and hear candidates for posts in Little Chicago, and take part in the first balloting for the most popular wrestler to appear here in a full evening of entertainment at the Monroe Wrestling arena tonight.

On the mat card will be a match between Joe Parelli, Italian grappler, and Yaqui Joe, Mexican Indian who [illegible] leg [illegible] advantage in the ring. In another feature event Dick Sampson, [illegible] school teacher, [illegible] off with Frankie Hill, [illegible] who has won [illegible] in the local arena.

The vote [illegible] each week [illegible] one of the [illegible] won the poll three times [illegible] he will be presented the cup. The name of the wrestler who wins the contest each week will be engraved on the cup. Other wrestlers who appear here while the voting is in progress will immediately become eligible for the prize, Promoter Kallio said.

Matmen who are now eligible for the loving cup and on whom the fans will vote tonight are:

Sailor Watkins, Joe Banaski, Frankie Hill, Joe Parelli, Dick Sampson, Yaqui Joe, Chuck Powell, Sailor Moran, Al Perry and Otto Ludwig.

The Little Chicago candidates, who will sit in a reserved section, will be given chances to speak between falls. It's a safe prediction they will avail themselves of the opportunity.

In one of the most interesting wrestling menus ever offered here, Parelli, who was known as the Masked Marvel until he lost his hood last Tuesday in winning from Sailor Watkins, will test the strength of his arms and shoulders against the strength of Yaqui Joe's famed legs.

Parelli, who has shown astounding power in his two previous matches in the local arena in breaking deadly holds, will have to move fast to keep out of the way of the Indian's potent leg holds.

Yaqui handles his legs as well as most persons handle their arms and he mixes a fast attack with plenty of tricks.

In the other main go, Sampson and Hill are expected to give an exhibition that will delight students of the mat game. The Ohioan apparently studies the game as thouroughly as he did any school subject when he taught in Toledo, while Hill has shown a complete knowledge of wrestling science in his matches here.

Both Hill and Sampson are expected to be strong contenders for the cup in the popularity contest. Every wrestler is anxious to win a contest of this sort, as evidence of popularity with mat fans in Monroe makes it all the more easy for a wrestler to get matches in other arenas.

The match between Hill and Sampson will be the first event and will start at 8:30 p.m., at the arena, 504 Walnut street.

ALABAMA BEGINS WORK FOR KENTUCKY CONTEST

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Oct. 31.—(P)—Coach Frank Thomas dished out a menu of hard work for the Alabama football team Monday as he began preparations for Saturday's engagement with Kentucky in Birmingham.

Cullen Sugg, senior guard, was the only casualty of the contest with Mississippi state last week. Sugg has an injured foot and probably will be unable to practice this week.

The first stringers were given a look at Kentucky plays as enacted by the freshmen, with passing being stressed.

TRIBE HAS OPEN DATE THIS WEEK

Indians Take Light Workout, But Hard Work Is Slated Tomorrow

The Tribesmen of Northeast Center of L. S. U., with an open date on their schedule this week, went through a light workout yesterday and have another light session on tap for today. The Indians' next scheduled game is with the United States Naval Air corps of Pensacola, Fla., on Armistice day.

Coach James L. Malone kept his charges indoors for a short time yesterday afternoon for a blackboard drill, then took them on the field for 40 minutes of work on passes in addition to the usual routine conditioning exercises. Similar work is scheduled for today, but hard work will be resumed again tomorrow, Coach Malone announced.

It was also reported yesterday that Don Short, hard driving ball-lugger, was again on the injured list and would be out of the Indian lineup indefinitely. Short came out of the Copiah-Lincoln game last week with a leg injury that is expected to keep him on the sidelines for some time.

The combination of Ben Starrett and Max Hutchins that worked together so smoothly on reverses off tackle against the Copiah-Lincoln Wolves is being counted on to lead the Tribe's offenses during the absence of Short. Starrett has been put in the quarterback position in one backfield that includes Big Bill Singleton, Guy Bryson and William Abraham while Hutchins is quarterbacking another backfield of "Tuffy" Westerman, Robert May and "Dub" Taylor. Both Hutchins and Starrett are to share the Indians' punting and passing.

The Redskins' line is in fairly good shape, with the exception of Hal Hanson, big tackle, who is indefinitely out as the result of a leg injury. Hanson was missing from the lineup last week and it is doubtful if he will be ready for action next week. "Frenchie" Broussard, guard, was inactive yesterday while having some dental work done, but he will be back on hand tomorrow.

ILLINOIS BARS TONY GALENTO, MAX SCHMELING

Governor To Investigate Alleged 'Dives' In Bouts With 2 Boxers

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—(P)—The Illinois state athletic commission Monday night barred Harry Thomas, Tony Galento, Max Schmeling, Nate Lewis and Joe [illegible] from Illinois rings pending [illegible]lete hearing of "fixed fight" [illegible] made by Thomas.

The [illegible] announced after the commission had discussed the allegations of Thomas, a former heavyweight fighter, that the results of his bouts with Schmeling and Galento "had been decided weeks before the fighters entered the ring."

The members met after Governor Henry Horner had ordered a thorough inquiry into Thomas' story of his alleged "dives." They pointed out that neither the three fighters nor their managers held licenses in Illinois or had applied for any. Their formal statement added:

"After consultation with Attorney General John E. Cassidy, the commission was informed that it had no jurisdiction to conduct an investigation at this time. However, it is the unanimous opinion of this commission and Governor Horner that none of the accused parties will be allowed to engage in any boxing enterprise in the state until there has been a complete hearing of the charges made by Mr. Thomas."

Such a hearing can be held only after one or more of the boxers or their managers seek licenses from the commission.

Governor Horner, at Springfield, said he would invite Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, which published the charges made by Thomas, to discuss the case with him in the state capital. Ward said he had received no direct invitation, but would go to Springfield Tuesday, if asked.

Governor Horner ordered the inquiry in the wake of reports that efforts would be made to promote a match between Galento and Max Baer here this winter and another bout between Galento and Joe Louis here next summer.

"Signor Galento doesn't fight in Illinois until this matter is cleared up," the governor told reporters. "No one is going to fight in this state under that cloud of suspicion."

The Schmeling-Thomas fight was held December 13, 1937, in New York's Madison Square Garden. Schmeling won on a technical knockout in the eighth round.

The Galento-Thomas bout was in Philadelphia November 14, 1938. Galento won on a technical knockout in three rounds.

The Tribune said Thomas made these allegations in affidavits and statements given to the newspaper:

1. Both contests were designed to build up reputations for challengers seeking bouts with Champion Joe Louis.

2. Thomas received approximately $8,500—the first "important" money of his ring career—for boxing Schmeling and was promised $6,000 for meeting Galento but actually earned $600 or $800 less than that amount.

3. Arrangements for the "faked" fights were made by Thomas' manager, Nate Lewis of Chicago, and Joe Jacobs of New York, manager of both Schmeling and Galento.

4. Arrangements for the Schmeling bout were made in a Chicago hotel room which, Thomas said, Jacobs had engaged under an assumed name and the understanding in the Galento match was reached by Lewis and Jacobs in New York.

Both Jacobs and Lewis scoffed at Thomas' charges.

Jacobs, in New York, declared Thomas was knocked down seven times by Schmeling and had "about 15 stitches taken in his lip" afterward.

"If he was gonna 'dive,' he could have done it a lot earlier without taking all that beating," he asserted. "And Galento floored Thomas three times. He said a left hand punch to the temple in the first round was the hardest blow he had ever been hit. Why didn't he stay down then? No, sir, I don't know what Thomas is talking about and I don't think he does either."

Lewis, a veteran of 40 years in the boxing business, stated that if Thomas "threw" the two bouts "he did so without my knowledge and without any instructions of that nature from me."

NEW YORK TO WATCH PROBE OF FIGHTS

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—(P)—Although New York fight circles generally were unperturbed by Harry Thomas' alleged confession that he "threw" fights to Max Schmeling and Tony Galento, Chairman John J. Phelan of the New York Boxing commission said Monday he would order an investigation "if the evidence warrants."

Concerning Thomas's fight with Schmeling at Madison Square Garden Dec. 13, 1937, Phelan said, "as far as I could see there was nothing irregular about the bout. There will be no hearing unless the evidence warrants it. We will wait until that evidence is submitted to us."

Mike Jacobs, president of the Twentieth Century Sporting club and copromoter of the bout, said he thought that "if Thomas agreed to such a thing he was a very foolish fellow."

"Schmeling had been signed to fight Joe Louis for the heavyweight title and a victory over the German would have made Thomas the 'hottest' fighter in the country," he added.

WAVE GETS REST

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31.—(P)—Tulane's football team, after last week's tough 18-6 victory over Mississippi, enjoyed a holiday Monday. The Greenies don't play for two weeks, when Alabama comes here, and are scheduled to take things easy this week. All players came through the Mississippi game without serious injury.

Coaches Talk Over Daffy Football Doin's Saturday

Old Prof Suggests Signals Were Mixed On Who Was To Win Games

By Whitney Martin

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—(P)—The old professor perused a list of scores shook his head thoughtfully, then addressed his Monday morning class of football coaches.

Old professor—Gentlemen, who am I?

Class—The old professor.

Old professor—It's all right then. I was beginning to think maybe it was I who was balmy. There seems to be a misunderstanding among you as to who is supposed to win these games. Mr. Schmidt, weren't you supposed to beat Cornell?

Francis Schmidt, Ohio State—I guess so, but we were suckered out on a couple of plays. Cornell's fast backs were too much for us, and it deserved to win. There was not a letdown.

Carl Snavely, Cornell—The courage my boys showed in coming back was absolutely unbeatable. Ohio State is the best team we've played.

Old professor—Mr. Kitts, why so glum? Please say something.

Jimmy Kitts, Rice—Hello.

Old professor—I mean about your game.

Mr. Kitts—I have nothing at all to say about the Rice team. Nothing. Texas evidently had the better team. It is very smart and Jack Crain is a great back, with fullback Pete Layden also in his class.

Dana Bible, Texas—We wanted to win this one so the boys went out and won. I think Mr. Kitts has a good team and an excellent back in Ollie Cordill.

Old professor—Mr. Armstrong, why are you hiding those newspapers?

Ike Armstrong, Utah—I'm afraid my boys have been reading too much about themselves. Maybe they expected Denver to run when they said 'boo.' Instead they ran into a big, alert team. It was a good show for the folks.

Clyde Hubbard, Denver—You'll have to say my boys played their best game of the year. They'd been aiming at Utah all year. Boy, what a versatile attack those Utes have. Old professor—Mr. Allison, you seem quite content for a loser.

Stub Allison, California—We were up against a mighty fine ball club. In fact, this USC team is the best I've seen since 1931. Maybe we could have held the score down with a conservative game, but we were out to win, and confidentially, I thought we could.

Howard Jones, USC—California is no slouch, and we weren't out to pour it on, but they gave us as good a scrap as we've had this year.

That tackle, Lee Artone, is a wonderful ball player.

Old professor—Mr. Yeager, what are you doing in that boy scout uniform?

Jim Yeager, Iowa State—I'm going scouting to see if that guy Faurot has any more boys like Gale, Cunningham and Christman down in those Missouri hills.

Don Faurot, Missouri—It really was a tough game despite the lopsided score. We had to fight for every inch.

Old professor—Is that your hand up, Mr. Zuppke?

Bob Zuppke, Illionis—Yes, I'd like to say that our team was keyed up, but Soper's touchdown run demoralized us. While our backs were moaning about their tough luck on a previous drive, Soper shot through all of them.

Lynn Waldorf, Northwestern—We were tickled to death to win a game which might have gone either way. Soper picked a great time to score his first college touchdown. Our ends were great.

Old professor—Mr. Mehre, please sit still. You act like a jitterbug.

Harry Mehre, Mississippi—That's just it, professor. The final score should have been: Jitterbug Kellogg 12 Old Miss 0. Tulane's mighty good, but it hasn't played L. S. U. yet. The Greenies should be ready for a great game with Alabama.

Red Dawson, Tulane—We beat a good ball club, but I believe we've looked better at times this season.

Old professor — You look quite pleased, Mr. Wolf.

Ray Wolf, North Carolina—We did much better than we expected against Penn, for the Quakers really have a fine team. Frank Reagan is one of the greatest backs we ever faced.

George Munger, Penn—Our boys had several attacks of fumblitis, but North Carolina is one of the most versatile outfits I've ever seen. Sweet Lalanne will make you forget about Davey O'Brien.

Old professor—We'll call it a day. Button up your overcoats, boys, it's right chilly out.

NEVILLE JUNIORS BEATEN BY WINNSBORO 'B' TEAM

WINNSBORO, La., Oct. 31—(Special)—The Winnsboro Wildcats "B" team defeated the Neville High school Junior Tigers of Monroe, 29 to 0, here Monday afternoon.

Neville's kittens, composed of seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys, were outweighed considerably by the reserve strength of the Winnsboro High school's regular eleven, but they made it a battle all the way.

TECH TO MEET SOUTHWESTERN ON SATURDAY

Game To Highlight Full Weekend For Ruston Students, Graduates

RUSTON, La., Oct. 31.—(Special)—Louisiana Tech is preparing for a full weekend of football and accessory entertainments comprising the college's annual homecoming, with the highlight of the program being a football game with Southwestern Louisiana institute at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Friday night at 8 o'clock the Tech freshman gridders will play the yearlings of Millsaps college at Ruston and the alumni and other homecoming visitors are being invited to put that event on their entertainment list.

An excursion by Southwestern students to Ruston for the varsity game is discussed in a letter from President L. E. Frazar of S. L. I. to President E. S. Richardson of Tech. Aboard a special train arriving in Ruston at 1 p.m. Saturday will be "from 1,500 to 1,600 students," President Frazar stated.

Athletic Director Eddie McLane has announced that the visiting Southwestern throng will be seated in sections E, F and G of the west-side stadium and the Tech students will occupy the east side of the football field.

D. G. Armstrong, Tech alumni secretary, has sent to all of the former Tech students a program of the homecoming activities, including a social hour beginning at 10 a.m. in the women's old dormitory, a general alumni meeting in the auditorium from 11:30 to 12 a.m., a parade to form on the west side of the courthouse at 1 p.m., the football game at 2 p.m., and the annual "T" club dance at 8 p.m. in the men's gymnasium. The alumni secretary's announcement states that "between halves of the football game, a delightful surprise event will be featured."

Football fever has soared an octave higher at Tech, following the Bulldogs' impressive 13-0 victory over the University of Tampa Spartans at Ruston last Friday night. Head Coach Ray E. Davis takes pleasure in reflecting upon the fact that the Techmen hit their stride in the Tampa game, especially in the second half. He commended the team as a whole and singled out several individual players, such as Fred Michael, whose perforance at fullback drew the mentor's bouquet, and Ora Merriott, quarterback, whose blocking received the coach's okay.

Most of the varsity Techsters came out of the Tampa encounter none the worse for the experience. The principal injury was reported received by Alternate Captain Gordon Adams, senior end, who suffered a hurt knee.

Light workouts were on the docket for the Techmen Monday afternoon, with perhaps the hardest drill session scheduled for Tuesday. The main item for rehearsals is the matter of fundamentals, Coach Davis said.

VOLS LAY PLANS TO HOBBLE KAVANAUGH

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 31.—(P)—Tennessee's coaches apparently working on the theory that the Vols must stop Ken Kavanaugh's pass-catching activities if they are to hurdle Louisiana State Saturday, began Monday trying to devise a defense to throttle the Tiger wingman.

Virtually all of Monday's workout was devoted to pass defense with a reserve team, using L. S. U. formations, tossing the ball against the Vols' first two elevens.

George Cafego, tailback injured in the Alabama game, returned to his post, but Bob Suffridge, all-conference guard a year ago who received a sprained knee in the same combat, was in sweat clothing and did not participate in the practice.

"Suffridge's chances of playing Saturday are fifty-fifty," said Trainer Mickey O'Brien. "We have a brace on his knee, but it may be that he won't regain use of the leg in time to get into the game."

Tom Smith, senior reserve, ran on the first team in Suffridge's slot.

WILMINGTON, Del.—Gino Garibaldi, 218, St. Louis, won over Emil Dusek, 218, Omaha. Dusek disqualified on third and deciding fall.
